The Reds could be open to a deal of £40m in cash plus Blues forward Nicolas Anelka, according to an Anfield source.

They have already rejected a £35m bid from Chelsea for Torres, who was signed from Atletico Madrid in 2007.

The 26-year-old Spain striker's transfer request was turned down by Liverpool on Friday.

The Reds are angered by the timing of Torres' request - the January transfer window closes at 2300 GMT on Monday - and believe Chelsea have "tapped up" the

About the Similarity Statistics

The overall similarity statistics. For example, a figure of $45/81=55.00\%$ in the color red means that, there are total 81 sentences in the document, and the system finds 45 out of 81 sentences similar to sentences in other source documents, which leads to a portion of 55.00%. The color of the percentage will change according the the percentage value.

The left-most “green” one corresponds to the value of absolute zero (0%), and each of the remaining colors corresponds to roughly 20% increment when moving from “pale green” to “red” (i.e., 1-20%, 21-40%, 41-60%, 61-80%, and 81-100%):

BBC SPORT Magic Murray powers into quarters

Australian Open, Melbourne Venue: Melbourne Park Dates: 17-30 January Coverage: Watch on BBC TV, Red Button, BBC Sport website (UK only) & Eurosport; listen on BBC 5 live sports extra and online; text commentary online; By Mark Ashenden

Britain's Andy Murray produced another ruthless display at the Australian Open to see off Jurgen Melzer 6-3 6-1 6-1 and secure his quarter-final spot.

The fifth seed showed aggression, resilience and no end of skill against the much-improved Austrian after serving his way to an edgy opening set.

Murray, 23, was relentless as he raced through with a 103-minute demolition.

The Scot will next play world number 46 Alexandr Dolgoplov, who upset fourth seed Robin Soderling in five sets.

Still to concede more than three games in any of his sets so far in Melbourne, Murray said: "I am very pleased. It was a match expected to be difficult but I was intense from the start and I dictated a lot of points on my forehand and didn't make many moments and more sloppy mistakes in the closing stages having led 4-0.

As Dolgoplov's increased work-rate helped him continue to dictate proceedings from the baseline, Soderling, a two-time runner-up at the French Open, finally wilted under immense pressure as his unheralded opponent secured a famous 1-6 6-3 6-1 4-6 6-2 victory on his fourth match point to win in 156 minutes.

"It was a good match," said Dolgoplov, who became the first man from Ukraine to reach a Grand Slam quarter-final since Andrei Medvedev in 1999.

"I was really struggling at the start, he plays a hard ball and I was serving pretty badly. But I had a chance to get back in the match and I was playing well from the baseline." Story from BBC SPORT: <http://news.bbc.co.uk/go/pr/fr/-/sport2/hi/tennis/9370996.stm>
